The Andy Hansen Legacy Scholarship

Andy Hansen was Plant Manager at John Deere Ottumwa Works from 2010-2013. While in Ottumwa, Andy provided leadership and encouraged others to step into leadership roles. He demonstrated his leadership through volunteerism and was part of the following boards: Ottumwa Regional Legacy Foundation, Ottumwa Economic Development Corporation, United Way of Wapello County, Ottumwa Airport Advisory, Indian Hills Community College Leadership Advisory & Local Advisory Councils.

Following his tenure, the Ottumwa Regional Legacy Foundation wanted to honor Andy's dedication to the betterment of the Ottumwa community by creating the Andy Hansen Legacy Scholarship.

This scholarship is for one year's tuition for a participant from a non-profit organization or small business that might not otherwise be able to send someone. To be considered for the scholarship, the applicant must answer the questions below. Scholarship application must be submitted with Ottumwa Leadership Academy application by July 31, 2014.

(In answering the following questions, limit total attachments to one, single-spaced typed pages)

1. What is your prior community involvement through volunteering?
2. What are your intentions upon graduating as to what initiatives / organizations you might want to invest time in?
3. Assess your current leadership skills. What are your strengths? What are areas you would like to improve? Please provide personal examples of each.
4. Please indicate whether your participation is reliant upon receiving this scholarship.
Note: This will not determine the recipient of the scholarship, rather it will help the selection committee better analyze the applicant pool.
